DECISION AND ORDER

The Louisiana Board of Ethics, in its capacity as the Supervisory Committee on Campaign Finance Disclosure, requested a hearing to have the Ethics Adjudicatory Board determine whether Donald D.T. Thompson failed to file a supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for the 2019 calendar year by the eleventh day after it was due, in connection with his 2018 candidacy for the office of Chief of Police, City of Opelousas. The Louisiana Board of Ethics proved by clear and convincing evidence that Donald D.T. Thompson failed to file the report as alleged. Pursuant to La. R.S. 18:1505.4(A)(4)(b), the Louisiana Board of Ethics, in its capacity as the Supervisory Committee on Campaign Finance Disclosure, is authorized to impose an additional civil penalty not to exceed $10,000.00 against Donald D.T. Thompson for his failure to timely file his 2019 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report.

APPEARANCES

An adjudicatory hearing was conducted on June 25, 2021, at the Division of Administrative Law in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, before Panel B of the Ethics Adjudicatory Board (EAB).<sup>1</sup> Charles Reeves appeared as counsel on behalf of the Louisiana Board of Ethics (BOE). Although duly

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The BOE, in its capacity as the Supervisory Committee on Campaign Finance Disclosure, alleged that Respondent failed to file a supplemental campaign finance disclosure report as required by La. R.S. 18:1495.4(D)(3)(a) for calendar year 2019, in connection with his November 6, 2018, candidacy for the office of Chief of Police, City of Opelousas, by the February 18, 2020 deadline or by the eleventh day after the report was due.

The BOE requested a hearing to have the EAB determine whether Respondent failed to file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report by the eleventh day after it was due, which could subject him to an additional civil penalty not to exceed $10,000.00, as authorized by La. R.S. 18:1505.4(A)(4)(b).

At the hearing, BOE offered its exhibits, numbered BOE-1 through BOE-4, and BOE-6 through BOE-13, which were admitted into evidence. Counsel presented the case on behalf of the BOE, the record was closed, and the matter was taken under advisement for a determination of whether Respondent violated La. R.S. 18:1495.4(D)(3)(a) and would therefore be subject to an additional civil penalty pursuant to La. R.S. 18:1505.4(A)(4)(b).

This adjudication is conducted in accordance with the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act (CFDA), La. R.S. 18:1481, et seq., the Code of Governmental Ethics, La. R.S. 42:1101, et seq., the Administrative Procedure Act, La. R.S. 49:950, et seq., and the enabling legislation of the Division of Administrative Law, La. R.S. 49:991, et seq.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Respondent was an unsuccessful candidate for the office of Chief of Police, City of Opelousas, in the November 6, 2018, election.<sup>3</sup> The office of Chief of Police, City of Opelousas, is an “any other” level public office.<sup>4</sup>

The BOE is the Supervisory Committee on Campaign Finance Disclosure under the CFDA.<sup>5</sup> Upon qualifying to run for office, Respondent acknowledged that he was subject to the provisions of the CFDA.<sup>6</sup>

On November 28, 2018, Respondent filed his final campaign finance disclosure report, referred to as the requisite “10-G” report, which showed a surplus of $2,004.95, and a deficit of $13,524.19, in connection with his November 6, 2018, candidacy.<sup>7</sup>

On March 8, 2019, Respondent filed his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2018, which showed a surplus of $354.95 and a deficit of $12,024.19.<sup>8</sup>

Respondent did not file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019, by the February 18, 2020, deadline or by the eleventh day after it was due.<sup>9</sup>

On August 10, 2020, the BOE issued a Late Fee Assessment Order to Respondent because he had not filed the 2019 Supplemental Report.<sup>10</sup> The Late Fee Assessment Order (a) assessed a late fee of $1,000.00 and (b) ordered Respondent to file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019 within 20 days of his receipt of the order.<sup>11</sup> The Late Fee Assessment Order was sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Respondent at 232 Ventre Boulevard, Apartment 215, Opelousas, Louisiana, 70570, and Respondent received it on August 14, 2020.<sup>12</sup> Respondent was notified in the letter accompanying the Late Fee Assessment Order that he could be subject to an additional civil penalty not to exceed $10,000.00, pursuant to La. R.S. 18:1505.4(A)(4)(b), if he failed to file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019.<sup>13</sup>

<sup>8</sup> BOE-7. Although Respondent did not include the required schedules to document loan payments and remaining deficits on his 2018 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report, Respondent listed a payment to the Balhoff Group, LLC, for $1,500.00 that the BOE deemed as payment towards Respondent’s debt owed to the Balhoff Group, LLC, which reduced Respondent’s previous deficit of $13,524.19, to a deficit of $12,024.19. See BOE-7, p.3 and BOE-6, p. 5.

<sup>9</sup> BOE-8 and BOE-9. Respondent admitted, by operation of law, under La. C.C.P. art. 1467(A), that he did not file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019. See BOE-10 and BOE-11. The statutory deadline for filing a supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019 of February 15, 2020, fell on a Saturday, and Monday, February 17, 2020, was a holiday. Therefore, the next business day was February 18, 2020.

On March 19, 2021, the BOE obtained personal service on Respondent through the St. Landry Parish Sheriff's Office of a copy of the Request for Hearing, with written discovery, including Requests for Admissions, propounded to Respondent.<sup>14</sup> Respondent was notified in the letters accompanying the copy of the Request for Hearing and the attached discovery requests propounded to Respondent that he could be subject to an additional civil penalty not to exceed $10,000.00, pursuant to La. R.S. 18:1505.4(A)(4)(b), if he failed to file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019.

On April 26, 2021, the BOE requested Respondent participate in a Rule 10.1 Discovery Conference because Respondent did not respond to the BOE's discovery requests; the request was sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Respondent's current address at 232 Ventre Boulevard, Opelousas, Louisiana, 70570, and the return receipt was signed and returned.<sup>15</sup>

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The BOE proved by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent knowingly failed to file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019 by February 18, 2020, or by the eleventh day after it was due. The BOE is authorized to impose upon Respondent an additional civil penalty not to exceed $10,000.00, as allowed by La. R.S. 18:1505.4(A)(4)(b).

In hearings under the CFDA before the EAB, the BOE must prove by clear and convincing evidence that the candidate knowingly failed to timely file a required campaign finance disclosure report.<sup>17</sup>

Every candidate for an “any other” level public office is required to file certain campaign finance disclosure reports by the statutory deadlines.<sup>18</sup> Failure to timely submit required reports constitutes a violation of the CFDA.<sup>19</sup>

La. R.S. 18:1495.4(D)(3)(a) provides that if the candidate is not an elected public official and their deficit or surplus is equal to or greater than $2,500.00, the candidate shall file annual supplemental reports with the BOE of all required information, no later than February 15th of each year, which shall be complete through the preceding December 31st. Such report shall be filed each year for five years or until a report has been filed which shows no deficit or surplus.<sup>20</sup>

<sup>17</sup> See La. R.S. 42:1141.5(C). “‘Clear and convincing evidence’, in general, means that the fact of guilt must be proven to a greater degree than by ‘a mere preponderance of the evidence’ but less than by ‘beyond a reasonable doubt.’” *Louisiana State Bar Ass’n v. Opelousas, which is an “any other” level public office,<sup>21</sup> in the November 6, 2018, election. On November 28, 2018, Respondent filed his final campaign finance disclosure report, which showed a surplus of $2,004.95, and a deficit of $13,524.19, in connection with his November 6, 2018, candidacy.

As a candidate for an “any other” level public office, who filed a final report showing a surplus and a deficit in connection with the November 6, 2018, election, Respondent was required to file annual supplemental campaign finance disclosure reports for five years or until a report was filed that showed no deficit or surplus.<sup>22</sup> Supplemental reports are due no later than February 15th, and shall be complete through the preceding December 31st.<sup>23</sup>

On March 8, 2019, Respondent filed his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2018, which showed a surplus of $354.95 and a deficit of $12,024.19. Because a surplus and a deficit remained, Respondent was required to file a 2019 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report by February 15, 2020. Because February 15, 2020, fell on a Saturday, and Monday, February 17, 2020, was a legal holiday, Respondent’s supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019 was due no later than the next business day, February 18, 2020.

Respondent did not file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019, by the February 18, 2020, deadline, or by the eleventh day after the report was due.

Any candidate for “any other” level public office who knowingly fails to timely file a required report may be assessed a civil penalty in the amount of $40.00 per day, not to exceed $1,000.00.<sup>24</sup> “Knowingly” means conduct which could have been avoided through the exercise of due diligence.<sup>25</sup>

Respondent knew he was required to file certain campaign finance disclosure reports when he acknowledged he was subject to CFDA upon qualification for candidacy. Respondent knew he was obligated to meet the CFDA filing requirements evidenced by his filing his “10-G” report and his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2018.

On August 10, 2020, the BOE issued a Late Fee Assessment Order and assessed a civil penalty in the maximum amount of $1,000.00, because Respondent knowingly failed to file the 2019 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report. This assessment is not before the EAB. In the letter accompanying the Late Fee Assessment Order, the BOE notified Respondent that he could be subject to an additional civil penalty not to exceed $10,000.00, pursuant to La. R.S. 18:1505.4(A)(4), for failing to file the 2019 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report, and the BOE ordered Respondent to file the 2019 supplemental report within 20 days of receipt of the Late Fee Assessment Order. Respondent knew he was obligated to meet the CFDA filing requirements by the statutory deadlines and that additional civil penalties not to exceed $10,000.00, could be imposed if he did not file the 2019 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report. Respondent did not file his 2019 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report by its due date or by the eleventh day after the report was due. The BOE proved by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent knowingly failed to file his 2019 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report by the February 18, 2020 due date or by the eleventh day after the report was due.

Additionally, Respondent’s failure to file his supplemental campaign finance disclosure report for calendar year 2019 within three days after the final date for filing creates a rebuttable presumption of intent to not file the report.<sup>26</sup> Nothing in evidence rebuts this statutory presumption.

If, after conducting an adjudicatory hearing, the EAB determines that Respondent knowingly failed to file a required campaign finance disclosure report by the eleventh day after the report was due, then the BOE may impose an additional civil penalty, not to exceed $10,000.00, against Respondent for the report that he failed to timely file.<sup>27</sup>

The BOE proved by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent, a candidate for the “any other” level public office of Chief of Police, City of Opelousas, knowingly violated the CFDA by failing to file his 2019 supplemental campaign finance disclosure report by the February 18, 2020 due date or by the eleventh day after the report was due.

The BOE, in its capacity as the Supervisory Committee for Campaign Finance Disclosure, is authorized to impose against Respondent an additional civil penalty, not to exceed $10,000.00, for the late report as authorized by La. R.S. 18:1505.4(A)(4)(b).
